WINE

Our wine list combines honest Slovak natural wines with a selection of the best from around the world. In the spirit of fire, soil, and honesty. We believe in wine that is not just a drink, but a story of the land, hands, and time. The wines on our list come from places where vineyards are still tended by hands, not machines, and where weather is accepted as a gift, not an obstacle. From vineyards where the wine knows its winemaker by name. Wine that matures slowly, without unnecessary intervention, with the power of fermentation and the character of the land. Wild, pure, honest. With food from fire, which also carries the taste of smoke and patience-they fit together perfectly. Each bottle is different, like the years that shaped it. With respect, we also look beyond our borders. Around the world, you will find equally honest, robust, spicy wines from southern Italy, the cool elegance of northern Burgundy, or Spanish passion aged in oak barrels. Wine that knows how to be proud without shouting.

For those who know how to listen to wine, not just drink it.

(All wines served contain allergen 12.)
